Angel Charity Announces New Leadership Team for 2020 Fundraising Campaign to Benefit Tucson Children

(TUCSON, AZ) February 12, 2020 — Angel Charity for Children announces its new leadership team for 2020, Adriana Rincon, General Chair, and Kristie Stevens, Vice Chair.

An all-volunteer organization, Angel Charity is the single largest non-profit in Tucson dedicated specifically to raising funds to benefit children in Pima County. Since 1983, Angel Charity has provided nearly $28 million to fund 87 local agencies providing social services, medical research and treatment, arts and education for more than one million children.

Rincon, an Angel Charity member since 2010, is owner/broker of TR Realty & Investments, LLC. She has previously served on boards of other non-profits which include past president and founding member of National Charity League, Inc Tucson Chapter, and past president of Tu Nidito Children & Family Services.

Stevens, a member of Angel Charity for 14 years, is the Assistant Principal and Athletic Director at Ironwood Ridge High School in the Amphitheater Public Schools. She previously was coach of the women's tennis team at Catalina Foothills High School where she led teams to 15 state championships.

"Kristie and I are honored to work alongside 100-plus dedicated Angel Charity members and our many generous community partners to raise funds for projects that will improve the lives of children in our community," said Rincon, General Chair.

Angel Charity's annual charity selection review is in process. The organization will announce its 2020 beneficiaries February 26 at its annual all-member voting meeting.

According to Stevens, Angel Charity's 2020 fundraising plans include the organization's annual Capital Campaign/Underwriting, chance ticket raffle sales, the Drop In at the Dropout shopping event on March 22 at the Culinary Dropout and the Big Deal Poker Party on September 25 at Hacienda del Sol. The annual Angel Ball to celebrate and recognize volunteers and donors will be December 12 at the Westin La Paloma.
